Our mission will be achieved through an effective curriculum, trainer certification, and intelligent assessment processes.

Mandate:

Life Skills University is strategically positioned to support the world in its efforts to implement Sustainable Development Goal 4 (SDG4) 'Quality education for all' and indeed, other SDGs that depend for their success on effective education and learning systems.

Our Roots

Life Skills University is a pioneering initiative of Skillizen Learning Global, a Singapore headquartered socio-educational venture with a presence in 70+ countries across the world.

The Genesis of Skillizen can be traced back to the global financial meltdown in 2009, which left our founder, then a successful corporate executive from Singapore very disturbed about the poor judgment and ineffective decision-making skills displayed by the political and business leaders across the world.

That trigger led him to the Harvard University in 2010-11, wherein he conducted an in-depth research to Find a solution to the global challenge of acute deficiency in critical skills across its populace. In the summer of 2011, his path-breaking and interdisciplinary research offered the following game-changing conclusions-

- a) The acute deficiency of critical life skills is the main cause behind the world's biggest man made challenges.
- b) The right age to transfer critical skills to the human brain is 6-16 years during its hardwiring stages of development.

Life Skills University is an integral initiative of Skillizen Learning Global, and retains total intellectual and functional autonomy. The university is responsible for the development of educational content, certification programs, teaching and learning strategies through curriculum development and life-skills assessment programs.

Certified Life Skills Trainer Program

fastest-growing, greenfield profession

Most countries across the world have tried in some way to incorporate Life Skills into the curriculum of schools and colleges. In India, the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) initially introduced Life Skills Education as an integral part of curriculum, and most other Boards are following that up.

Similarly, AICTE has very recently made it mandatory through the 'Jeevan Kaushal Curriculum' to include Life Skills training in all engineering and other degree colleges. The govt. has categorically instructed to incorporate Life Skills as part of the college education to ensure that students are made industry-ready, and a large number of corporate organizations are also looking for Certified Life Skills trainers.

Life Skills training is an opportunity to make a difference and the Skillizen's Certified Life Skills Trainer program was a step in that direction. It's not a typical course where the trainer talks and you listen, the program gets you involved, gets you thinking and absorbed. And when you do something firsthand you don't forget it easily.

Bijal Shah Chokshi

Professional Trainer - Mumbai, India

I have always been very interested in shaping up the lives of the young generation/ young kids. So, I enrolled in the Life Skills Trainer program and finally, I got through the certification and now I am a proud Certified Life Skills Trainer and working as a Life Skills Ambassador for Skillizen here in Pakistan. The sessions with the master Trainer Mr. Sidharth they had been amazing and wonderful. I really liked his teaching methodology as all activities were based on the case stories, interactive based learning, and immersive communication activities. Now I am keen to work with Skillizen to transfer these skills to the young generation here in Pakistan and shape up their lives.

Javed Ahmad

IELTS Trainer - Abbottabad, Pakistan

I really recommend this short but highly effective program to the people who want to grow in the area of life skills and to contribute something to the society as well. Personally, as a life coach and as a parent I think that life skills training is very essential and a must for our upcoming generation so that they can be equipped with the skills to manage and to live their life in a better way. I really recommend this course and am really thankful to the whole Skillizen team. Now I am looking forward to Imparting the life skills curriculum to young children so that I can help them to manage and to live a better life.

Pooja Dhiman

Life Coach and Parent - Chandigarh, India

Hi, my name is Angelica I just completed the international life skills trainer certification program with Life Skills University, Singapore it was really an amazing time that I had during this program. We had a great master trainer and the content was super-rich. Now as an educator, I have been equipped to transfer 25 critical life skills to young learners between the ages of 6 to 18 years so that they become great leaders that way they will be flexible in whatever environment they find themselves. If you're looking for learning about life skills or you looking to upgrade yourself as an educator and as a trainer then this course is for you.

Angelica Macdestiny

Soft Skills Trainer, Abu Dhabi

The program has given me the platform to master Life Skills and practice in a very structured and systematic way for children, adolescents, and college students to enable them to become emotionally and socially intelligent, to be tough in adversities, to be a better citizen in coming times and finally to contribute to society in a very positive way.

Francis D'costa

Life Skills Professional - Karnataka, India

Being a business partner for Skillizen Learning Global in Nigeria, I have been actively promoting life skills among schools and parents of young children in Nigeria. But participation in this certification program has given me the right tools, training skills, and great confidence to conduct life skills transfer sessions for young minds. I recommend this certification program to the entire teaching and training community in the African continent.
